Reading improves memory and cognitive ability. When you read or listen to stories, visualize the characters and scenes, and feel the emotions of the characters, your brain releases the "feel good hormone".

This hormone, dopamine, is the primary driver of the brain's reward system. It spikes when we experience something we enjoy. There are plenty of books in this catalog to provide you with many pleasurable dopamine hits.

Choose from your favorite categories, but be adventurous and explore other genres as well. You might find a few precious gems.

PARANORMAL SUPERNATURAL HORROR

Paranormal Fiction Genre

Books in the paranormal fiction genre are set in the real world, but they include experiences that defy scientific explanation. For example, stories set on earth that include things like angels, demons, ghosts, psychics, vampires, etc.

The supernatural genre includes ghosts, vampires, werewolves, demons or even comic book characters with supernatural powers. And while most supernatural stories are scary, some are not, like the romantic films "Ghost" or "Ghost Town." Structure your approach.

Horror is a genre of speculative fiction which is intended to frighten, scare, or disgust. Literary historian J. A. Cuddon defined the horror story as "a piece of fiction in prose of variable length... which shocks, or even frightens the reader, or perhaps induces a feeling of repulsion or loathing".

Supernatural suspense

A love potion made with haste out of jealousy puts Dorian into a comalike state. A rare orchid that blooms only once a year could save his life, but the precious flowers are fiercely guarded by Liam and his werewolf pack. The acolytes of the coven are forbidden to enter the forest and the young apprentices volunteer to make the journey that will test their loyalty and courage.

Will they succeed?

FICTION NON-FICTION

Literary fiction:

Aside from subject matter, literary fiction tends to be written with emphasis on prose style. While genre fiction is "transparent" (readers can see through the text to escape into the story itself), literary writers want the reader to notice how beautiful the writing is.

Women's fiction:

An umbrella term for women centered books that focus on women's life experience that are marketed to female readers and includes many mainstream novels or woman's rights Books. It is distinct from Women's writing, which refers to literature written by (rather than promoted to) women.

Dystopian literature is a form of speculative fiction that began as a response to utopian literature. A dystopia is an imagined community or society that is dehumanizing and frightening. A dystopia is an antonym of a utopia, which is a perfect society. Non-fiction includes history, memoir, biography, philosophy, health and wellness, cookbooks, education, reference books.

Erotic poetry

Slipping Into Darkness is about the love we feel and the loving we share. It's an attempt to describe with words the journey taken in each other's company which starts as a treat for the eyes and becomes a feast for one's soul. It is certainly a good thing when "experience brings forth appreciation from what was, originally, a purely visual fixation". The words on these pages exist because of the feelings awakened when the desires aroused between lovers sets the passion they share.

WEBSITE

O.J. Barré hails from the lushly forested, red-clay hills near Atlanta, Georgia. From birth, O.J. was a force of nature. Barefoot and freckled, headstrong and gifted; she was, and is, sensitive to a fault. Books became her refuge as a young child, allowing O.J. to escape the confines of her turbulent alcoholic home on adventures to untold places and times. Her daddy's mother was a Willoughby, making O.J. a direct descendant of William the Conqueror. Her Awen series is a love letter to that distant past.

SEELKs Fire & Ice BLOG

I think it fits my personality and my friends would attest to that. I am passionate about things I care about. What is this blog about? Anything and everything. One of my passions is reading, I read voraciously, I am addicted to audiobooks and the voices telling them. It is my escape from the everyday stuff. I am a book hoarder, blogger, collector of angel bells and BBF... and BGF too.
